1 *Fairhope's Municipal Pier, Rose Garden & Fountain, at the West end of Fairhope Avenue, is a favorite destination. Originally built in 1895, the pier has been rebuilt several times, most recently after Hurricane Katrina. Alongshore, enjoy Fairhope's Purple Martin Riviera. On the pier, watch fisherman cast nets for bait or catch a variety of fish. You must have a saltwater fishing license unless you are 65 or older. Restrooms, a small marina complete with pump out station, and a restaurant are located along the pier. View Fairhope's July 4th fireworks from here. Rose garden is American Rose Society accredited. Dogs are not allowed on the pier.

2 *North Beach Park, North of the Rose Garden, is Fairhope's premier beach park for walkers, runners, beachgoers, and picnickers. The paved Beach Tree Trail encircles the park. An official Alabama's Coastal Birding Trail destination, the park has ducks, geese, and a wetland treatment pond. Watch for a green flag at the entrance, showing it is safe to swim.

3 *South Beach Park, South of the Fairhope Municipal Pier, has a short multiple-use cement loop trail (approximately 1,300 lineal feet long) alongshore and benches and picnic tables among the trees. It is often used for weddings, special events and Earth Day activities. A small beach exists at the South end. Equipped with handicap areas for picnics.

4 *Knoll Park, fronted by Fairhope Avenue at Magnolia Avenue, is wooded, and is being restored to a fire-resistant longleaf pine forest and native habitat. Some of its pines are over 130 years old. This park is named for George Knowles, a Charter Member of the Fairhope Single Tax Corporation.

Parks 15, 16, 21 & 22 are not indicated on this map

5 *Henry George Park, on a grassy bluff above the Municipal Pier and Fountain, is the site of Fairhope's Fourth of July celebration and Baldwin Pops Concert. There is also a Veteran's Memorial Statue (Tears of Sorrow, Tears of Joy), by Fairhope artist Stephen C. Spears, dedicated in 2013. Bring a picnic to enjoy all of the events.

6 *North Bluff Park is located off North Bayview Street (north end) and is an excellent area for viewing a bay sunset from a park bench or a tree swing. Overlooks the beach front Park and has a stairway leading to North Beach Park.

7 Magnolia Beach Park, between Laurel Ave & Pier St along South Mobile St. has live oaks draped in Spanish moss and a multi-use path favored by strollers, bench sitters, and dog walkers. Dog bags and receptacles are available, as is a water source for dogs. The short piers along the bay are open to the public. Water quality results are posted near one of the central piers. A small butterfly sanctuary with butterfly bush, lantana, and milkweed, attracts the Gulf fritillary, swallowtails, and monarch butterflies in season. Public parking and a no-fee boat launch.

8 Fairhoppers Community Park, built by Fairhope volunteers in downtown Fairhope along Church Street and Morphy Avenue, is a kid's paradise with creative playground equipment, climbing towers, and a giant dinosaur. A gazebo offers shade. Dogs are not permitted. Open sunrise to sundown.

9 *Utopia Park overlooks South Beach Park. It features a bronze statue by Frances J. Neumann, Barbara Casey and Richard Arnold honoring Marietta Johnson, 1907 founder of the School of Organic Education in Fairhope and an early advocate of progressive education. To the south is a seahorse sculpture by Bruce Larsen and John Rezner. Parking available along South Mobile St.

10 Fels Toddler Park, at Fels Avenue and Liberty Street, is a small, quiet neighborhood park with playground equipment and picnic tables.
