Bid No. 031-16 Jail Inmate Meals

The following questions have been submitted by potential bidders and answers have been provided by the Purchasing Manager:

Question 1: I would like to know if the request is designed to be fulfilled by only one supplier. My company is a processor of dry mixes located in Arkansas and we provide many state agencies with dry mixes for beverages, gravy, pudding, and cheese sauce. However we are not a full line food service distributor so we would only be able to submit bids on the drink mixes. Would you advise me to submit bids on just those products?

Answer 1: The bid was composed for meeting the needs of our rapidly changing jail population count. Quick availability of product is a key factor, as storage space is severely limited. The usual award is one vendor supplies all, or split along delivery / pickup lines. That said, if you desire to bid a limited number of products, you are welcome to bid. However, the chances of a line item award are slim. It is your choice.

Bidders are to sign and include signed Addendum No.1 with submitted bid documents.
