

Tea for Two

Each Tuesday at 2 p.m. in the Museum Council Chamber

Upcoming Programs February – March, 2018

February 6 – Randal Wright is the president of the Friends of the Fairhope Public Library. She will talk about their exciting upcoming projects and activities, from children's programs to adult educational lectures and more.

February 13 – Happy Mardi Gras! Donnie Barrett will present "The History of Mardi Gras." If you're lucky, you might even catch some beads or a flying Moon Pie! Laissez Les Bon Temps Rouler!

February 20 – Darby Wiik, Assistant Director at the Fairhope Museum of History, will talk about her adventures before coming to Fairhope and her hopes and dreams for our own facility.

February 27 – Kathryn Thompson is originally from Mobile, but her family owned a house near the Grand Hotel, so she grew up "over the bay" and has wonderful stories of the early Eastern Shore.

March 6 – Irene Wegner is a well-known story teller who teaches folk lore ESILL classes. She will tell us some of her traditional American folk tales.

March 13 – Gary Scoville will present his new film, "The Squire of Fairhope" on the Mayor Nix years; 28 years of success for our beautiful City of Fairhope!

March 20 – Wade Wellborn, better known as "Dr. Music" has had a successful music shop in Fairhope for 20 years. Come hear about his adventures through two decades of the music industry.

March 27 – Brain Kane, Managing Partner of the Fairhope Brewing Company, will come tell us about the past, the present and what's-brewing at this successful Fairhope venture.
