

Fairhope Museum of History

Research Request Form

The Fairhope Museum of History offers assistance to individuals researching Fairhope’s history through the generosity of a small team of dedicated volunteers.

Once your information has been received, it will be directed to volunteers. You will be contacted regarding next steps depending on the nature of the request and volunteer availability.

We strive to contact you within a week of your request to let you know if we’ve found information.

We hope we can be of help!
