

- (12) The foregoing retail rate schedule shall be further subject to adjustment in certain areas defined and specified as subject to the competitive rate environment. Such areas are those in which the city is competing or will have to compete with other gas suppliers for market share. The purpose of this discretion to adjust rates in the defined area or areas is to enhance the municipal utility's ability to successfully compete and gain market share.