ZULU NECKLACE/BRACELET

Although not an African Zulu technique, this style was inspired by that traditional beadwork. The developer, Ina Hascher, has honored the tribe by naming her technique after its inspiration. Individual rings of seed beads, gemstones, crystals, shell, chips, etc encapsulate cording to create a rich texture and color variation. The ends are tubular peyote stitch, to which is attached a bead-strung strap to circle the neck.

Date: Every Wednesday in February Time: 9:30-noon
OPEN TO ALL.....NO BEADING EXPERIENCE NECESSARY

No instruction fee, but students must provide their own materials and supplies of beads, needles, thread. See photos for examples of types of beads. Cording may be purchased from instructor for $1.

For information and to register, please call instructor:
