Fairhope Outdoor Spring/Summer Farmers Market Returns

FAIRHOPE, ALABAMA – The City of Fairhope is set to open its 2022 Spring/Summer Outdoor Farmers Market on Thursday, April 14th. The market is located behind the Fairhope Public Library, on the corner of Magnolia Avenue and Bancroft Street in downtown Fairhope and takes place on Thursday afternoons from 3pm to 6pm. The market is a rain or shine event that continues through July 14th.

The farmers market will feature a varied selection of individual booths selling local produce, plants, honey, baked items, handmade soaps, and more.

For entertainment and the whole family, the farmers market will feature live music and activities for the kids.

For more information about the Fairhope Spring/Summer Outdoor Farmers Market, please call 251-929-1474.
