

Tea for Two

Each Tuesday at 2 p.m. in the Museum Council Chamber

Upcoming Programs

October 7 – Jo-Anne Crawford – Jo-Anne is a native of the Eastern Shore – she was a Steiner from Montrose. She has been active in many business and civic organizations and will come and tell us her stories.

October 14 – Becky Jones – Becky runs the Bay Breeze B & B Guest House. She will do her “Blood Hound Becky” program which is a true story about how she cracked a major scam operation. She uses disguises and funny voices and the entire story is hilarious.

October 21 – Fred Marchman - Fred is a local author and college professor and will present his new book “Portals of Paradise.” His unique style and sometimes dry humor is very entertaining.

October 28 – Mike Turner – Mike is the founding member of the Eastern Shore Ukulele Club and will tell us the history of the ukulele. He will present songs covering the ukulele’s unique cultural past from the beaches of Hawaii to Tiny Tim.

November 4 – Don Cheney, Jr. – Don will show us his recent craze for carving wood fish – some comical & some realistic – and will also tell us about his ongoing project cataloging and researching Edith Harwell.

November 11 – P.T. Paul – P.T. is the reigning Poet of the Year for 2014 and has won several awards in the 2014 Spring Poetry Competition from the Alabama State Poetry Society. She will present to us some of her latest works.

November 18 – Jacquelyn Kirkland – Jacquelyn is the Museum Relations Officer for the Museum of Mobile and will discuss Mary McNeill Fenollosa, a famous Mobile novelist and poet from the early 1900’s.

November 25 – Curt Cochran & Donnie Barrett – Curt and Donnie will review the life of Hatchett Chandler who started the park at Fort Morgan. Curt will present a slide show and Donnie will correct the many inaccuracies in Chandler’s books, “Little Gems from Fort Morgan.”
