Upcoming Programs

October 6 – Jon Thornton – Jon and his wife Becky first saw Fairhope in the early 1960's. It soon became their home filling their lives with Eastern Shore activities. Jon now manages and directs productions at Theater 98 and is ready to tell us about it.

October 13 – Jim Nix – Mr. Nix was the Mayor of Fairhope from 1972 to 2000. During this time he modernized our city's infrastructure, sewer system, recycling, Civic Center, Senior Center, Rose Garden and fountain but most importantly, started the city's beautification program. Come help us thank him for all he has done for Fairhope.

October 20 – Lt. John Hamrick – Lt. Hamrick is a Fairhope native who has just been promoted to Lieutenant. He has started several programs at the Fairhope Police Dept. that he is excited to tell us about.

October 27 – Janice Charles – Janice is the Director of the Fairhope Film Festival which she will tell us about. Its history, venue locations, prices and opening night parties will be discussed as well as the 40 films that will be shown.

November 3 – Alan Samry – Alan has presented programs on Fairhope founders Lydia Comings and Frank Brown and has quite an interesting career himself. He will read for us some of his interesting writings and tell us of some of his other projects he does at the Fairhope library.

November 10 – Donnie & Judy Weston – Donnie & Judy are Fairhope natives who were childhood sweethearts and have also raised their children here. Judy was Donnie Barrett's neighbor and they played together as children. Come enjoy hearing about their lives growing up in Fairhope during simpler times.

November 17 – Wendy Allen – Wendy will talk about her public life here in Fairhope. She was once a Baldwin Co. Commissioner, worked with Smart Coast, and had many other projects that have benefited our area. Come hear her story!

November 24 – Charles Scovill – Charles is a professor of astronomy who went to South Africa to study the skies of the southern hemisphere. He has a very entertaining slide presentation of his travels through South Africa.
